High Tide Opens First Canna Cabana Location in British Columbia

CALGARY, July 13, 2022 /CNW/ – High Tide Inc. (“High Tide” or the “Company”) (Nasdaq: HITI) (TSXV: HITI) (FSE: 2LYA), a leading retail-focused cannabis company with bricks-and-mortar as well as global e-commerce assets, announced today that its Canna Cabana retail cannabis store located at 10027 100 Street in Fort St. John, British Columbia will begin selling recreational cannabis products and consumption accessories for adult use at 4:20 PM local time today. This opening will represent High Tide’s 128th branded retail location across Canada, and 1st in British Columbia, selling recreational cannabis products and consumption accessories. The store will be High Tide’s first location in the Peace River Region of British Columbia, within which Fort. St John is the largest municipality. It is located in the centre of the city, close to numerous businesses, and is only minutes away from the Alaska Highway, which brings residents and visitors into the city.

“Our first organic store opening in British Columbia is a much-awaited and very positive milestone for High Tide. This is the result of many months of hard work by our team as we navigated the regulatory process to enter the province. I am excited that we finally have the opportunity to bring our innovative discount club model, which has been a proven hit with our customers in the four provinces where we already operate, to British Columbia,” said Raj Grover, President and Chief Executive Officer of High Tide. “Combined with last week’s announced acquisition of two operating retail cannabis stores in Vancouver through the Choom BC store portfolio, we are entering the province in a big way and are already almost halfway to the provincial store cap. With this foothold in British Columbia, I anticipate that we will be able to expand quickly through both organic growth and strategic acquisitions, putting us in a position to reach the cap of 8 stores in the coming months,” added Mr. Grover.
